ABSTRAK

Mengirimkan pekerja migran ke negara asing salah satunya Korea Selatan, merupakan upaya yang dilakukan oleh pemerintah Indonesia untuk mengatasi permasalahan kurangnya lapangan pekerjaan di dalam negeri. Secara keseluruhan, penelitian ini bertujuan untuk mengetahui upaya-upaya yang dilakukan oleh BP2MI sebagai badan pelindung dan perwakilan pemerintah Indonesia dalam memastikan keamanan dan keselamatan PMI di Korea Selatan selama masa pandemi Covid-19. Untuk menjawab rumusan masalah, penulis menggunakan konsep migrasi internasional dan human security. Jenis penelitian yang digunakan adalah kualitatif deskriptif dengan teknik mengumpulkan berbagai data primer dan skunder, serta wawancara dengan narasumber yang memiliki keterkaitan dengan topik penelitian. Hasil dari penelitian menunjukkan bahwa BP2MI telah berhasil menegakan human security dalam perlindungan PMI di Korea Selatan selama masa pandemi Covid-19. Adapun hal yang membuat BP2MI berhasil dalam menjalankan upaya-upaya perlindungan tersebut, yaitu dengan mematuhi dan melaksanakan ketentuan yang telah ditetapkan oleh WHO, serta komunikasi antara pemerintah Indonesia melalui BP2MI dan KBRI di Seoul, dengan pemerintah Korea Selatan mengenai jaminan yang diberikan oleh pemerintah Korea Selatan kepada PMI yang terjebak Korea Selatan selama masa pandemi Covid-19. BP2MI juga aktif dalam melaksanakan kampanye mengenai penanganan Covid-19 melalui akun resminya, yang mana hal ini sangat mempermudah PMI yang kesulitan dalam mencari informasi ditengah kepanikan pandemi Covid-19.

Kata Kunci: BP2MI, Human Security, Covid-19, Upaya perlindungan PMI di Korea Selatan.

THE ROLE OF THE INDONESIAN MIGRANT WORKER PROTECTION AGENCY (BP2MI) TOWARDS INDONESIAN MIGRANT WORKERS (PMI)
IN SOUTH KOREA DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

ABSTRACT

Sending migrant workers to foreign countries, one of which is South Korea, is an effort made by the Indonesian government to overcome the problem of lack of jobs in the country. Overall, this research aims to find out the efforts made by BP2MI as a protective body and representative of the Indonesian government in ensuring the safety and safety of PMI in South Korea during the Covid-19 pandemic. To answer the formulation of the problem, the author uses the concept of international migration and human security. The type of research used is descriptive qualitative with techniques for collecting various primary and secondary data, as well as interviews with resource persons who are related to research topics. The results of the study show that BP2MI has succeeded in upholding human security in protecting PMI in South Korea during the Covid-19 pandemic. As for the things that make BP2MI successful in carrying out these protection efforts, namely complying with and implementing the provisions set by WHO, as well as communication between the Indonesian government through BP2MI and the Indonesian Embassy in Seoul, with the South Korean government regarding the guarantees given by the South Korean government to PMI that was trapped by South Korea during the Covid-19 pandemic. BP2MI is also active in carrying out campaigns regarding the handling of Covid-19 through its official account, which makes it very easy for PMI to find it difficult to find information in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic panic.
